

CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE FOR FEDERAL POLICY RESEARCH invites you to attend a

BUDGET DISCUSSION:
HOW FEDERAL BUDGET DECISIONS MAY AFFECT THE CALIFORNIA BUDGET AND AN UPDATE ON THE PROPOSED STATE BUDGET

featuring presenters from the California Budget Project, Western Center on Law and Poverty, and Child Care Law Center

Tuesday, January 31, 2006
10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
Room 1539, Longworth House Office Building

You are invited to attend a briefing that will offer summary information regarding a number of topics related to the federal budget, the California state budget, and social services programs.

This session will look at how programs such as TANF, child care, foster care, child support and Medicaid may be impacted by federal budget reconciliation and state budget decisions and what the presenters expect in this area in the year to come.

The briefing will feature presentations by Jean Ross of the California Budget Project, Michael Herald of the Western Center on Law and Poverty, and Nancy Strohl of the Child Care Law Center. It will take place on Tuesday, January 31, 2006, at 10:30 am, in Room 1539 of the Longworth House Office Building in Washington, DC. Breakfast refreshments will be served.

To attend this widely-attended briefing, please reply (acceptances only, thank you) to 202-546-3700, or send email to randsell@calinst.org . When replying, please indicate the date of the event you wish to attend. We look forward to seeing you on January 31.
